Another prolific source of death and disability is the defective coup-ing arrangement for freight cars, and the position of butlers so near the draw-heads which often catch the arm and sometimes the bodies of unfortunate brakemen ing them out of all semblance of hu-ly. This latter matter is easily rem-le, and railway managers should be compelled by law to turnish proved couples for all cars, for whatever purpose

"Many railways have mutual benefit societies to which all employees can, and in some instances must, belong, which make weekly payments in cases of disability, or pay a fixed sum in case of death. Shall We Meet Again.

The following is said to be one of the mented George D. Prentice:

"The flat of nature is inexorable. There is no appeal for relief from the great law which dooms us to dust. We flourish and fade as the leaves of the forest, and the flowers that bloom and withst, and the flowers that bloom and wither to ady have no frailer hold upon life than the mightiest monarch that ever than the strongest terms, showing the great interest felt by the executive in the building of a railroad.
